東京国際映画祭 TOKYO INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL 2017

PRESS RELEASE December 21, 2016

Dates Set for the 30th Anniversary Edition of Tokyo International Film Festival: Oct. 25 - Nov. 3,2017

The Tokyo International Film Festival (TIFF) will celebrate its 30th anniversary in 2017, with festivities running from October 25 to November 3 at Roppongi Hills, EX Theater and other venues in Tokyo.

TIFF was launched in 1985 as Japan's first major film festival and in the ensuing years, shown a spotlight on excellent films and filmmakers from around the world, screening overs 5,000 films. In 2016, the 29th TIFF expanded its main venues to include EX Theater, and drew 181,031 attendees.

The 30th anniversary edition of TIFF will pursue enhancements in every area, as the festival strives to attract leading filmmakers, to expand its discovery of emerging talents, and to serve as a nexus for cultural interaction between films and cinema lovers, beyond national borders.

The TIFF team appreciates your ongoing support and interest in the Tokyo International Film Festival. See you in Tokyo in 2017!

©2016 TIFF

30th Tokyo International Film Festival

Date: October 25 (Wed.) – November 3 (Fri.), 2017

Venues: Roppongi Hills, EX Theater and other venues in Tokyo

Hosted by: UNIJAPAN

Official Website: www.tiff-jp.net

*Film submissions for the 30th Tokyo International Film Festival will be accepted from late April, 2017.

For further information or inquiries, please contact: TIFF Promotion Group
Tel: +81-3-6226-3012; Fax: +81-3-6226-3023; email: tiff-pr2017@tiff-jp.net

Official Website: www.tiff-jp.net/en/